Student(s) applying to Kent Island Christian School:

Kent Island Christian School is a ministry of Kent Island United Methodist Church. Children from many different denominational backgrounds will comprise the student body of the school, but we seek families who are committed to Christian education and high academic standards. You have been asked by the family above to help us in the admission process.

Kent Island Christian School admits students of any race, color, sex, or ethnic origin to all the rights and privileges of the school. Our goal is to serve the entire Christian community.
