NEW Women's Bible Study-

Unshakeable Hope: Building Our Lives on the Promises of God

There are things that seem unsteady in this life. But when we belong to God, it allows us to filter our problems through the promises of God. When we choose to be people of the promise, we choose to build our lives on promises of God, not the circumstances of life.

Because of God's promises, Noah built an ark on dry land, Joshua claimed the Promised Land, David became king, Peter preached the first sermon, and John caught a glimpse of the future. Like them, we can also build our lives on God's promises, and trust Him to keep them.

Nothing lifts us out of fear and weariness like hope. Come join the Tuesday morning women's Bible Study as we explore God's promises with Max Lucado's Unshakeable Hope.

(Un)Qualified: How God Uses Broken People to Do Big Things      $12 per person

Who you think you are is not as important as who God says you are...

Many of us wrestle with the gap between our weaknesses and our dreams, between who we are and who God says we are meant to be. We feel unqualified to do God's work or to live out the calling we imagine. But God has a way of using our weaknesses for good. In fact, God loves unqualified people.

(Un)Qualified helps you peel back the assumptions you've made about yourself and see yourself as God sees you. Because true peace and confidence come not from worldly perfection but from acceptance: God's acceptance of you, your acceptance of yourself, and your acceptance of God's process of change.

This is a book about understanding your identity in light of who God is. It's a book about coming to terms with the good, the bad, and the unmentionable in your life and learning to let God use you. It's about charging into the gap between your present and your hopes and meeting God there. After all, God can't bless who you pretend to be. But he longs to bless who you really are; a flawed and broken person. Good thing for us that God is in the business of using broken people to do big things. (12 weeks)

Barbara Schreiber is excited to be leading this class, beginning Sunday, February 24, 2019 in Room 212 at 11:00am. Materials cost $12. Scholarships available upon request.
