Prelude Come Thou Long Expected Jesus Charles Wesley

Welcome! We are so happy you are here today!

*Please continue social distancing and wear your mask while in the church building, until you exit. Please turn off or silence your cell phones.
Thank you.*

Today's Focus: Temptation is deceptive. On the one side, it is beautiful and on the other side, it is ugly. Temptation can be inviting but it is dangerous. At some point, we will all be tempted. Today, we will examine the events surrounding the temptation of Jesus in the wilderness. Our focus will not be on the devil but the role the Holy Spirit played in the life of Christ.

♦ Call to Worship

Jesus began His ministry to the world, led by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness.

As we continue on our path to faithfulness, we will be led by the Holy Spirit, rejoicing in the Lord our God.

Sovereign Lord, we meet together to celebrate the gift of your Holy Spirit to the church. Bless us as we seek to serve you in this place. Lead us by your Spirit as you did with Jesus in the wilderness, that we might better be your voices, hands and presence in the world, and draw others into your kingdom. In Jesus name we pray. Amen

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Luke 4: 1-13
