The Message

Pastor Mark Farnell

How Do I Overcome Temptation?

Temptation is inevitable. No one escapes it. No matter what temptations come our way, they are common to us all and should not be taken lightly. Temptation is often strongest when we are at our weakest. Our scripture lesson teaches that the moment temptation begins, the way out is immediately available.

Offering

Please note that offerings can be given in the baskets as you leave the Sanctuary today or at the Square Reader in the foyer.

Closing

1 Corinthians 10:6-13 (NIV)

<sup>6</sup> Now these things occurred as examples to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did. <sup>7</sup> Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry." <sup>8</sup> We should not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did—and in one day twenty-three thousand of them died. <sup>9</sup> We should not test Christ, as some of them did—and were killed by snakes. <sup>10</sup> And do not grumble, as some of them did—and were killed by the destroying angel.

<sup>11</sup> These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the culmination of the ages has come. <sup>12</sup> So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall! <sup>13</sup> No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.
